

ENST Fall 2020 Advising Plan

All ENST undergraduate academic advising appointments during COVID will be done virtually over Zoom and Google Meet. Advisor Baballari teaches and advises Soils and Wetland Science students and designated Ecological Technology Design students and will advise online on Mondays 12-3pm and Thursdays 11am-2pm. Advisor Gunnulfsen teaches and advises Ecosystem Health students and will advise Tuesdays 1-4pm and Fridays 9am-12pm. Dr. Izursa teaches and advises Ecological Technology Design students and will advise online Tuesdays 1-4pm and Thursdays 9am-12:30pm. Advisor Pederson teaches and advises Natural Resources Management students, Soils minors, student athletes, probationary students, 2+2 students, reenrollment students, and student transfers and will advise online Wednesdays & Fridays 1-5pm. Undeclared students will be assigned an advisor shortly and can direct their questions to enst@umd.edu or schedule an appointment with Dr. Izursa or Advisor Pederson. Any ENST student is welcome to meet with fellow ENST undergrad Isabelle Van Benschoten with questions about ENST or UMD. Peer Mentor Advisor Isabelle is available virtually 2-4pm Mondays & Wednesdays. She will change over to scheduled in-person (or scheduled Zoom) meetings in Symons Hall once UMD campus opens on September 14th.

Students will schedule advising appointments via their advisor's link and will receive virtual meeting instructions. Students will receive reminders of this advising plan via:

- Personal email
- ENST's website enst.umd.edu and blog enstadvicing.blogspot.com
- Virtual Town Hall meetings each month
- Exterior main entrance door to ANSC/ENST building
- ENST staff inside the ENST safe room (ANSC1420/1422) during pre-scheduled meeting
